New Reciprocal Agreement in place with the New Brunswick
Public Service Superannuation Plan

Have you paid into the New Brunswick Public Service Superannuation Plan in the past? If your answer is yes, this memo will be of interest to you.

The NSAHO Pension Plan has just signed a new Reciprocal Transfer Agreement with the New Brunswick Public Service Superannuation Plan that may allow you to transfer your New Brunswick pension service into the NSAHO Pension Plan.

Our new agreement has an effective date of February 11, 2010.

To qualify to do a reciprocal transfer there are time limits and certain restrictions. You must complete the transfer by February 11, 2011 or within one year of when you became a member of the NSAHO Pension Plan if later.

In addition, you must have left your money in the New Brunswick Public Service Superannuation Plan when you ended your New Brunswick employment.

For further information or to find out if you qualify for a reciprocal transfer, please contact the NSAHO Pension Plan directly.
